a.natalie_jones_ @transkidsdeservebetter are already back at it with the action!!! They are occupying the EHRC offices by Vauxhall in London and will be there for some days! Go show up and give them some food, some blankets, cardboard or just general support - they need it all!

Whoah, attending two protests in a day! I need a lie down lol

6. Post dated 26 May 2025 by: @kirk_protest_london; @transkidsdeservebetter; @whatthetrans

The image shows a person wearing a balaclava and a patterned scarf, standing in front of a wall covered in cardboard protest signs. The signs are taped to the wall and contain various messages. A 'Collaborators' pop-up window is overlaid on the image, listing three accounts: @kirk_protest_london, @transkidsdeservebetter, and @whatthetrans, each with a 'Follow' button. To the right of the image is the social media post interface, showing the post date as 27 May 2025 and the text: 'young trans activists from @transkidsdeservebetter occupy the EHRC's London office to protest the flawed interim guidance, pressuring them to listen to the trans voice. Formal details check out their website'. Below the text are several hashtags: #transgenderwoman, #peoplepower, #photojournalist, #travelphotography, #portraitphotography, #humanrights, #democracynow, #protest, #protestphotography, and #streetphotography. The post has received several comments and likes, with the most recent comment from 'sistersinarmsuk' dated 1 day ago.
